PART IV + RESOURCES

Financial Literacy

Read to them. Read with them. Let them read for themselves!

Books make money ideas concrete and give you an easy way to start conversations. Pick one for each child and read it together this month.

For Your Littles

READ TO THEM

- King Midas and the Golden Touch Charlotte Craft
- A Chair for My Mother Vera B. Williams
- Berenstain Bears: Let's Talk About Money Stan & Jan Berenstain
- Money Ninja Mary Nhin
- Little Economists (5-book set) Kelly Lee
- Junior's Adventures Storytime Collection Dave Ramsey
- I'm Glad for What I Have Rachel Cruze
  Plus her other "I'm Glad" books.

For Elementary

READ WITH THEM

- The Money Book Elaine Wyatt
- Priceless Facts About Money Mellody Hobson
  Where money comes from, what came before it, and how it evolved. Very fun.
- Money Skills for Kids Ferne Bowe
- Whatever Happened to Penny Candy? Richard J. Maybury
- My 1st Book of Money Basics Sara Kale

For Teens

ON THEIR OWN

- The Money Challenge for Teens Art Rainer
  Well written and to the point. A great jumping-off point for teens. Christian.
- Money Skills for Teens Ferne Bowe
- Investing for Kids Dylin Redling & Allison Tom
- Investing for Kids Activity Book Justine Nelson

For Parents

- Trusted Matt Bell
- Make Your Kid a Money Genius Beth Kobliner
  My favorite non-Christian resource.
- Smart Money, Smart Kids Dave Ramsey & Rachel Cruze
- True Riches John Cortines & Gregory Baumer

SOME GOOD PROGRAMS

- The Treasure of Handling Money God's Way Compass Financial Ministry
  Scripture-rich, with lots of activities. Ages 5 to 10.
- Financial Peace Kids Ramsey Solutions
  Less Scripture, more manageable.

This month we'll read: _____ with: _____